

REEDSBURG POLICE DEPARTMENT MEDIA RELEASE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Timothy M. Becker
Chief of Police
March 21, 2018

Wonewoc Woman faces 5th Offense DUI

(Reedsburg, WI) A Wonewoc woman was arrested Tuesday afternoon for 5th Offense DUI after multiple reports of her erratic driving.

Reedsburg Police began receiving phone calls about an erratic driver on E. Main Street near Dewey Avenue. The vehicle was reportedly striking the curb and weaving in traffic. Officers stopped the vehicle and arrested the driver, Ginger M. Stromberg (56) for Driving under the Influence – 5th Offense.

Stromberg was processed and then transported to the Sauk County Jail. DUI – 5th Offense is a class G Felony.

A Class G Felony carries a mandatory jail sentence of 6 months – 10 years and a fine not to exceed $25,000.

###

